Term 3, Week 7

Book Fair

Thank you to all of the families that attended our book fair last week. The children really enjoyed themselves. I hope nobody froze too badly whilst hunting down QR codes! Also, a big thank you to those that donated books to the school. These are greatly appreciated.

P and C

The P and C are having a fundraising food stall at the upcoming election on Saturday 7 September. Helpers are required to support the running of the stall. Please speak to us if you can help. We would also like cakes and sweets to sell on the day. It would be great if we could have individually wrapped items ready for sale to help raise money! Please return the attached sheet indicating the time you are able to help on the day.

Citizen and Worker Badges

Could you please help your child to have a hunt around your home for any Citizen and Worker badges? We are down to having only one or two of each, so they must be lurking under beds and cupboards somewhere.

Mudgee Library Books

The library van visits our school fortnightly with books from the Mudgee Library. We have some outstanding loans that need to be returned. If you have any of the Mudgee library books at home, could you please send them in to be returned.

Happy Father's Day

We hope you have a great father's day this weekend. The students and staff have worked hard to ensure all dads get something special.

Miss Tree

Going to school from home each morning
I walked by seventy-nine
For living there was young Miss Tree
I thought that she was fine.

But if she ever saw you
She'd turn you into stone
And use you as a statue
In her garden, like a gnome.

But my Grandma just giggled at me
And said she'd walk by there
To see the young lady
And take her apple crumble to share.

Now every year on Christmas eve
I walk there and get a shock
To see that poor old Grandma
Is turned to solid rock

She holds out her apple crumble
On her china plate
The sparrows are all gathered
This was poor old Grandma's fate.

I'm careful to keep on walking
And not to look at cruel Miss Tree
I use my magic mirror
So Miss Tree can't look at me.

QUIETNESS ON THE WINDOW

Water vapours, mist appears
Water spittles, dewdrops smear
Delicate, silent, moist, foggy, kiss
Ghostly enveloping mist.

WINTER ON THE LAKE

Frost twinkles, rivers freeze
Snow sprinkles, winter breeze howl, patter, splatter, woosh sudden blow swoosh

Midnight in the sky

Stars bright, moon twinkle
Stars light, rain sprinkles
Dark, still, cold, quiet, freeze
